(1) Japan will Certainly Lose

When the war between Japan and Britain, America broke out we affirmed that: Japan would certainly lose. Now Japan has captured Hongkong, Singapore, the Philippines, many people become doubtful and think that Japan will win. Even there are some who are afraid that if our people can fight Japan when Britain and American are losing!

It is wrong to think that way! No matter how aggressive Japan is, we can be sure that Japan will certainly lose because of the following reasons:

1. The old people who studied Han language may still remember that: long time ago, Hong Wu had won hundreds of battles, but when he lost only one battle, he lost all his country.

The people who study French may remember that: when Napoleon of France won wherever he launched attacks, occupying Europe, but when he lost one battle, all his course was smashed. Therefore, if one wants to know who wins and who loses in a war, he should not base his judgment on the first battles, but the final ones. In war, who is more consistent, durable in strength will win.

2. Not to mention irrelevant stories, we should only judge the stories that has been happening near us and in front of us. When they began to have war with China, the Japanese said that: they would gain total victory after 3 months. At first Japan occupied Shanghai, Nanking, Guangxi, Hankow and advanced forwards in a thundering position. At that time many people thought China would lose, Japan would win. But until now 5 years have passed, but China has not lost, Japan has not won, because China is very consistent and durable in strength.

Speech / Inq. - 5.1.41 - J. G. H. V.

And it is common knowledge to everyone that Britain and America are much more durable than China. If Britain and America combines, they will be much more durable than Japan.

3. Not to mention other countries which are opposing Japan if only Britain and America ~~combine~~ China combine, there will be 1,000 millions people, and Japan only has 100 millions people. Only that thing is enough to clarify that the more the war prolongs, the more beneficial to Britain and America and more harmful to Japan.

Japan's victories now appear to be temporary and similar to the fire of the straw - quickly burns and quickly extinguish.

③ News of the Province Japanese rape women, girls Loot property, kill people!

1. Recently in Cao Bang, a ^{the} couple of Mrs X and her husband while they were on their way, a group of Japanese soldiers tightened the husband at a tree and raped the wife. Just as she had got home, she fell and died!

A few days ago, a Man young girl of 16 was raped to death by Japanese soldiers. In Cao Bang provincial town, Japanese soldiers with guns often go to guesthouse and arrest the women they like.

2. For two or three times Japanese soldiers surrounded the streets and looted all money from houses.

3. Early this month 20 brick-makers near provincial town of Cao Bang were eating dog's meat. Japanese soldiers suspected them of stealing their dogs and shot dead 3 makers and forced the makers to cook one person and ~~eat~~ right in front of them.

If we no longer want to be so brutally tortured by Japan, we must soon unite.
