(Viet Nam must be independent)

To defeat French and Japanese imperialist
It is important to keep secret.

Cadres

Liaisons, newspaper reporters, trainers, propagandists, ...
Those people who work for mass organizations are cadres.

An organization is like a vehicle, cadres are like its wheels. The vehicle will run fast when its wheels are good. It will run slowly if its wheels are bad. If cadres are competent <sup>for this work</sup>, the organization will rapidly develop. And the organization will develop slowly when cadres are bad.

Eg:

- (1) An enthusiastic liaison will deliver the news immediately in despite of rain or sun. That will make the <sup>work go smoothly</sup> organization get things done quickly (settle problems quickly).
If the liaison is lazy, the news comes late, the information that's not good.

the organization only receives the informations after they cool off, that's not good.

- (2) A wise propagandist tells the right things in a convincing way. That makes people eager to listen<sup>to</sup> and understand clearly. So they will follow (and the organization will be strong).
If the propagandist does not know how to <sup>propagandize</sup> ~~talk~~, no body will listen to him so the organization can not develop.

- (3) A wise (organizational) organizer can select the right members, arrange work and keep things secret. That will make the organization stable.
If the organizer is not careful or does not know how to do his duties, let's ~~the~~ secret agents <sup>can</sup> intrude into the organization, then every-thing will be spoilt.
Among cadres, the head of each subgroup plays a very important role.

Eg. An organization is like a tree

Masses are like the earth

The group leaders are like roots

A tree can not live without earth

If the roots are good the tree will grow well

If a great number of people follow, the organization will strongly develop. If the group leader is active, many people will follow him. The group leader is the closest cadre to the masses out of others.

When the group leader presents people's problems to the organization and trains people with <sup>books and papers</sup> ~~interactions~~ issued by the organization, people will be more enthusiastic, (the relation between people and the organization will) and (will) be in a close contact with the organization, the <sup>cause of national</sup> ~~cause~~ liberation will be successful soon. If the group leader does not know <sup>how to do</sup> his job, the affairs of the village will slowly progress.

Announcement of provincial VM committee should encourage the members to emulate in learning <sup>Ngu Tu Kint</sup> in order to maintain their locality's reputation

- At Nguyen Binh post, the French soldiers have raped one Man-coe, one Kinh and two Chinese girls for three days.
- Recently in Ba Chau, the French have shot 7 village headmen and arrested more than 200 people. These people have concerns with robbers and the Thuong Boi Long group. Last year, they killed buffaloes and pigs, holding a big party in Thuong Lang. When they put down their names in a notebook, afterwards, referring to this notebook, the Secret police could arrest them so easily. In the name of the revolutionary force, they have done wrong things. They didn't know how to keep secret, so all of them have been arrested!

World news

Poem: We must keep secret.

If you want to safeguard your house you must make a fence around your house.

To prevent robbers from intruding into your house you must the doors and the windows <sup>must be kept</sup> in safety.

Moreover, you must have trunks and boxes in the house to keep your properties.

Viet Minh is just like our properties.

We must keep all information about Viet Minh in secrecy.

Viet Minh is even more precious to us than our properties.

It instructs us to fight the French colonialists and the Japanese imperialists.

It's leading us to freedom and independence.

Our duty is to inform Viet Minh of all news about the enemies and take precautions in all cases.
