The Lang Son event was isolated and not known and approved by the outside world. This time, the movement is approved by all democratic countries in the world which are our close friends.

There are other reasons, but the above reasons are sufficient to prove that this time is unlike Lang Son. This time we will certainly win!

② Letters to the Editors : To the local responsible cadres and armed units / commissars.

The newspaper wants to know the situation of the Japanese troops in the localities: the number, actions, and especially clashes between our army and the Japanese army; where the clashes took place, who won, what losses Japan suffered, what we gained.

These informations should be clear: date, month, place, number, equipments, etc.

Some news will be carried, some not. The news should be sent quickly and carefully, right after any event takes place.

③ The Hue Court sentences itself to Death.

Recently the Hue Court has issued the following Communiqué:

For approval

Bao Dai

So the Hue Court has sentenced itself to death for the crime of becoming the Japan's agents and contributing all national assets to Japan for the latter to continue its war of aggression.

These people are not conscious of the shame. Yesterday they knelt down before Governor General De Cour, today they do that before Japan.

Here the method of cheating of the Japanese should be reminded. They had for long supported Cuong De before. When they had occupied Vietnam they abandoned Cuong De and turned to support Bao Dai.

5) Anti Japanese Resistance Book

1. The Ta Sa factory (Na Ngai) was destroyed by the guerrillas on the 6. The nearby rice storehouse of Japan was also emptied. Some days before, the local armed unit killed 6 Japanese.

Soldiers, captured 4 guns.

2. In Bàu Cạn, Japan ~~forced~~ ^{want} to repair the Mĩ Văn bridge. They planned to concentrate 300 forced labourers. In 3 days they caught only one person and threatened to chop his head. The labourer was so fearful that he then escaped so Japan could not catch anybody. Similar things happened in other places.

3. In one village, the Japanese troops moved into the village to take properties and search women. All villagers escaped, except an old man. In the afternoon, thinking that the Japanese had gone, one woman returned. She was seen by the old man who signed that she must leave at once. Suddenly they were seen by the Japanese, one of whom went to him and was about to beat him. The old man at once drove the Japanese into the river and then fled.

4. When the Japanese soldiers entered the district of Chợ Rá (Bàu Cạn), all the people had fled, except a sleeping woman, who was then raped nearly to death by the Japanese. When they had gone, the people came back and found a statement written in Han language on a wall: "The Japanese fascists will certainly die. The revolution will certainly win. Wish you try more!" This might have been written by a Chinese or a Japanese soldier who wanted to show ~~their~~ ^{his} sentiment towards us.

Now there are Chinese soldiers who were forced to work and fight for Japan. Some have tried to escape. We should encourage them to escape and give them good treatment if they meet us, helping them to go back to China if they want. Especially we should encourage the Japanese soldiers who want to escape, give them good treatment and report at once to high level cadres.

⑥ World News

1. The Red Army is advancing in Austria and marching forward to Berlin. The Allied forces are defeating the German army to the west.

Chinese

2. In the Far East, guerrilla activities in Hu Bai. The 8th army of the Chinese Communist Party is becoming stronger with US assistance.

3. Japan's difficulties are increasing everyday. Tokyo and many industrial cities have been heavily bombed by the Allies' planes. The Koiso government has collapsed, the new government is in total confusion, and it is reported that Russia has renounced the non-aggression treaty signed with Japan.

④ In Trung Vuong district (Chu Trinh province)

the anti-Japanese people's committee established.

On Feb. 21 lunar calendar (Mar. 3) the people in the Trung Vuong district and its vicinity held a meeting to elect the people's provisional committee. The meeting was attended by many people from religious circles and the patriotic government staff and mandarins.

The newly-established committee has stated the abolishment of tax, forced labour, corruption and granted to the people all rights of freedom and equality.

It has ordered the whole district to destroy army camps and stations, roads, bridges; the villages near the roads have prepared to implement scorched-earth policy. Many merchants in the streets have moved to the villages.

Schools have been reopened to teach the people politics. The people appeared to be glad when the red flag with golden star was raised, and everyone showed their determination to fight Japan to the last minutes. In the hall, tax receipts were collected and were burned by the chairman of the people's committee while the people were clapping.

The meeting was also attended by the local armed soldiers and P. U of the V. L. A.
